

Delhi Duty Free is running a dual whisky promotion in collaboration with Chivas Regal and The Glenlivet during August and September, giving two travellers, the chance to win an all-inclusive trip to Scotland on purchase of Chivas Regal and/or The Glenlivet.

To win trips to Scotland, travellers have to buy two bottles (selected SKUs) of Chivas Regal & The Glenlivet from Delhi Duty Free and submit their fully completed lucky draw coupons at the drop box. Travellers could also win daily prizes in the form of Tanishq gift vouchers through a scratch card.

Arun Barathi, COO, Delhi Duty Free Services Pvt Ltd, said: "Over the years, Chivas Regal has been one of the most popular liquor brand at our duty free shops.

[Above: Chivas and The Glenlivet promotion at Delhi Airport]

"To enrich the traveller experience this year and looking at the customers enthusiasm for the brand, we have decided to announce the special offer for a limited time period. We are sure that customers will be excited to actively participate in this great offer, which will also inspire us to carry forward our customer engagement tradition."

DDFS is the single largest duty free retail operator in India operating out of T3, the sixth largest single terminal building in terms of floor area. The company was awarded the concession to manage and operate the Duty Free Shops at Terminal 3, Indira Gandhi International Airport in Delhi.

"As India's progressive economy continues to grow, DDFS sees an exciting opportunity within the airport retailing business ensuring Delhi Duty Free is established as one of the world's prominent travel retail shopping experiences and destination," says DDFS.