

California inspires Tumi's Spring 2018 collections

Californias dynamic and picturesque terrain and vibrant culture provides the blueprint for travel accessory firm Tumis latest Spring 2018 collections.

New to the lineup is the Tumi Merge collection, which fuses Tumis design DNA in a lightweight luggage package that plays firmly on the importance of the work-life balance.

Functions include an identifying front zipper pocket for quick and easy storage access for small items and a roomier interior compartment.

The collection is available across a variety of colours including Sunset Red and Green Camo.

The Tumi Alpha McCoy Gym Bag exudes a relaxed yet sophisticated attitude.

LAID-BACK TRAVEL

Tumis 19 Degree Aluminum collection is described as a masterful combination of form following function, of luxury and innovation: this collection is the pinnacle of travel gear.

Introduced in a new seasonal colour ivory gold, the assortment boasts a reinforced frame-case design, two snap closures for carry-on bags, three for check-in bags and die-cast corner caps for added protection.

The Voyageur Leather collections Misty Crossbody in Black and Carolina Tote in Bright Blue adds sartorial elegance to any occasion.

The interior features a lightweight lining with an embossed diamond pattern that adds to the unique exterior pattern.

In the Tumi Spring 2018 Mens Collection, fresh, new colours and patterns pair with a clean, contemporary aesthetic across premium bags, backpacks, totes to briefs all inspired by the laid-back culture and breathtaking landscapes of California.

The Alpha Bravo collection receives an updated, modern look, refined with black leather and gunmetal detailing, alongside an integrated logo plaque among other style touches.
